ministry at the behest of different agencies to prevent him from travel- ling abroad.

"The circular is a well thought out and meticulously orchestrated fraudulent plan of the CBI to stop me at the airport as and when I proceed abroad by springing an unpleasant surprise on me and leak it to the media that I was detained at the airport and cause embarrassment to me," he alleged.

Karti also charged that the central government had been pursuing 'a politically-motivated vendetta' against his family, especially him, in the past two-and-half years by 'abus- ing' the powers of agencies such as the Income Tax, Enforcement Directorate and the Central Bureau of In- vestigation.

He claimed that the whole aim of the central government was to 'da- mage' their reputation.

Karti said he had responded to the summonses issued by the CBI in connection with the case and there was 'no absolute cause of action' for issuance of the look out circular.

The petitioner had been summo- ned twice by the CBI since June this year to appear before it for question- ing in connection with alleged irregu- larities in the clearance given by the FIPB to the media group for alle- gedly receiving funds from Mauriti- us when his father was the finance minister in 2007.
